The Young Fox

At night, the young fox pokes its head
Out of its den beneath the shed.

To hear if there is danger near.
Its sharp nose sniffs the air and tells
If there are any dangerous smells.
Its sharp eyes peer from left to right
Watching for movements in the night.
If it senses it's safe, then up it leaps
And off across the fields it creeps.
